2021 Festival Schedule

September 22, 2021: Registration: Artists who have registered online can begin painting anytime on Sept. 22, 2021. Due to the pandemic, artists will not need to get their canvasses stamped prior to painting. Everyone will be on the honor system to not begin earlier than Sept. 22nd. The Tupper Arts gallery at 106 Park St. will be open at 9am for those registering that same day. Information about locations to paint and maps of the area are available at the gallery. To prevent spread of disease, hand sanitizer will be available upon entering the building, and face masks are required of anyone entering the building. Social distancing will be practiced to ensure the safety of everyone in the building. Information about the region will be provided to artists who are not familiar with the area.

Sept. 22 – 24 : Paint the Water: Artists have abundant views of Tupper Lake, Raquette Pond, Lake Simond, Bog River Falls, the Raquette River, Little Wolf, Gull Pond, Panther Pond and the wetlands that permeate the perimeters of the waterways through and around the town. The choices are spectacular and rich with colors and textures that are certain to inspire all Plein Air artists.

Paint the Town: Tupper Lake offers a variety of architectural structures, new and old, along with revitalized streets and storefronts that invite artistic interpretation. The gazebo at the municipal park, the Bandshell at Flander's Park, Beth Joseph Synagogue, the Oval Wood Dish factory buildings, and The Wild Center are all landmarks that add special touches that help define the history and spirit of the town.

From the top of Raymond hill on Route 3 entering Tupper Lake from the west, to the panoramic display of the Seward range behind L P Quinn Elementary School, to the spectacular views of Mt. Morris, home of Big Tupper Ski Area, from several locations along Raquette Pond, artists are rewarded with an array of Adirondack vistas.
